

The purpose of Future Leaders is to inform students of the many services the County offers and range of careers available in County Government.

- A variety of Scott County Departments will be participating in the showcase during the morning portion of the event.
- Review your student application to see what careers interest them
- If possible, take time to show them some of the things you do. Maybe even a hands-on project.
- Find co-workers that work in the departments that the student has a career interest to talk with them; best to line up ahead of time.

It's all about the students. Identify the student's personal style (quiet, outgoing, etc). Make them feel comfortable. Ask them about what classes they attend in school; hobbies/sports; career goals; etc. Find ways to get to know them.

Your day:

Be at the LEC between 9:00 – 9:10 to be in the designated mentor areas per the map you received in your folder and on this SCOOP site.

RTF Group: After opening ceremony, RTF students will be released to find their mentors out in the loading dock area. This group will then need to load the bus in the loading dock area to go out to the RTF. Your agenda for the day is in the mentor folder you received and posted on this SCOOP site. Be dressed for the weather. Stay with your student throughout the day. It is a fast paced day of activities!

Trial Group: After opening ceremony, students involved in the mock trial will be released to go out in the hallway to find their mentors. You then have time to tour the showcase event. Between the showcase and lunch: spend time showing student your work area, or other things around the campus. Don't forget there will be a crash car in the front of the courthouse. See your agenda for lunch times. Then off to the group picture and the Mock Trial.

Board Group: After opening ceremony, mentors involved in the mock board meeting will be asked to come into the LA240/241 room to find their students. You then have time to tour the showcase event. Between the showcase and lunch: spend time showing student your work area, or other things around the campus. Don't forget there will be a crash car in the front of the courthouse. See your agenda for lunch times. Then off to the group picture and the Mock Board meeting.
